THE "BELLE OF THE BALL."

Would not have been half so charming if she had not been wise as well as "pretty."
The reason is easy to find: Rare perfume, lend added charm to beauty and the above young lady was posted. Backed up her judgment, too, by supplying her "perfume wants" at the right place;

PUTNAM STREET DRUG STORE.

The "Belles" all know our stock of "society colors" is most complete. One thing is certain—you may forget us, but the remembrance of our DELICATE, RARE and LASTING perfumes will linger longer with you than the memory of the "last rose of summer."

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1896.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Mr. Chas. Jackson has made quite a pull on the "fast stock" of Marietta, having secured the fine horses of Win. Roeder, of that place, which he will winter here. They will be stabled in the Tucker barn on the road to the Fair grounds.—Beverly Dispatch.

—Grand Master W. L. Kerns and Past Grand Master Jewett Palmer, of American Union Lodge, No. 1, have returned from Cincinnati, where they attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons. Thursday afternoon, after the adjournment of the Grand Lodge, they attended a re-union and banquet at the Arcade Cafe, at which there were present representatives from N. C. Harmony Lodge No. 2, of Cincinnati, Old Erie Lodge No. 3, of Warren, O., and New England Lodge No. 4, of Worthington, O. The occasion was a very enjoyable one, under direction of Mr. C. M. Bartlett, of Cincinnati. The four lodges represented were the original charter lodge through which was organized the first Grand Lodge, at Chillicothe.

—An effort will be made to arrange for a game of football to be played here next week between the Marietta College and Parkersburg.

—The friends of Hon. Henry Bohl, who has been doing good work for the sound money cause, will regret to learn that he is suffering from a severe attack of throat trouble, for which he has been undergoing treatment in Cincinnati.

—Mr. L. A. Ziegler is back in his old position as driver for the American Express company.

—Judge H. L. Sibley and wife left Friday for Fairfield, Ills., where they will spend several days with relatives.

—During the big Republican meeting at Parkersburg Thursday night a political dispute arose between Smith Colvert, of the Benwood Republican club, and Cliff Oliver of Parkersburg. Oliver drew his revolver and fired at Colvert, but the bullet missed its intended victim and buried itself in the breast of John Griffin, a 17-year-old bystander. The wound is not fatal. Oliver has been arrested for shooting with intent to kill.

—At the regular meeting of the McKinley Club at the Court House next Monday evening the audience will be addressed by Mr. S. W. Jones, an able attorney from Gallipolis, and a stump speaker of considerable note. He should have a large audience, as his address will be well worth listening to.

—By actual count there were 48 present at the minstrel rehearsal last night. The chorus, under the direction of M. R. Coste, is singing beautifully and the rest of the show under Mr. Hendricks' care will not be behind. The olio acts will all be first-class. They contain monologue, clog dancing, ballad singing, cake walk, club swinging, stump speech, musical specialties, comedy acts and the original farce "Marietta vs. Wittenberg." These with Arnold's orchestra of 17 pieces make a wonderful amateur minstrel show, and the house, at the rate tickets are going now, will be packed.

—Born, Wednesday, October 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foreman, Nashville, Tenn., a daughter; granddaughter to Mr. and Mrs. James Foreman, of Marietta.

—Mr. Will Brigham leaves today for Washington, D. C., where he will remain during the winter.

—Mrs. Fred Koerner is recovering from an attack of typhoid fever.

—Harry Fell, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home to Indianapolis Friday.

—The Buckeye Clothing Company made a good advertising hit Friday by placing an all-wool Ohio sheep in their show window.

—At a meeting of the Athletic Association Friday it was decided to get along in future without the Dennison team on account of the shabby manner in which they have treated Marietta several times.

—Miss Woodbridge gave a delightful dance at Wehrs' hall from four to eight Friday evening in honor of Miss Elizabeth Gallagher. About 20 couples were present.

—Mr. Fred Moore has been confined to his bed for several days by a severe attack of fever.

—The eloquent and incomparable Foraker will address the people at Glouster today. It is safe to say that he will have a magnificent audience.

—Two children at Beverly were taken ill with scarletina while at school and it is feared that the disease will become epidemic.

—Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Clark have returned home to Beverly, after a pleasant visit with relatives in the city.

—The next meeting of the Junior Club will be held Monday evening at the home of Miss Oldham, Second street. Mrs. A. D. Alderman, reader, W. W. Boyd, critic.

—Frank Ranger returned Friday from a business trip to Corning.

—Messrs. Phil. Peters, Jr., Lou Skipton and George Peters left Friday night on a hunting trip into West Virginia.

—The Boys' Brigade were treated to a free trip in a special car to Canton and it is stated on good authority that they are to have an annual treat, either a picnic, excursion or go camping. The Drill Master, Thos. H. Sugden, was highly pleased with their behavior and was a boy amongst the boys on their way home.

—The football teams of Parkersburg and Belpre High Schools will meet on the gridiron today.

—The contract for the erection of the new Sunday School on Fairview Heights has been let to Contractor John Becker, who will begin work at once. The total cost of the structure is to be $900, one-half of which amount has already been raised by subscription.

—Capt. J. B. Haight has returned from Cincinnati, where he spent several days attending the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons and visiting his daughter, Mrs. T. G. Sellow.

—Mrs. John Trautman is visiting friends in Pittsburg.

—Messrs. D. H. Rood and Louis Gottschalk, of Chicago, who have been here for a few weeks with a view to establishing a soap factory, returned home Friday, having made some progress. They have secured an option on a piece of real estate suitable for the buildings and some stock subscriptions have been promised.

—Mr. Henry Langenberg, one of the oldest and most widely known German residents of the county, died Friday at his home at Beverly. He had been ill for some time of stomach trouble. The deceased was 82 years of age and leaves a wife and four children. He had retired from active business several years before his death and was one of the best citizens of the village in which he lived.

—The remains of Mrs. Caroline Hayes passed through Marietta Friday to Watertown for interment. Mrs. Hayes died Thursday at Jackson, Ohio, where she had been making her home. She was 78 years of age and a native of Watertown. The cause of her death was apoplexy.

—District Lecturer J. C. Preston arrived home Friday morning from Cincinnati, where he had been attending the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons.

—The latest novelty in the way of an election bet was made Friday between Joseph Toller, of the B. & O. S. W., and Peter Ward. In the event of McKinley's election the latter is to have tattooed on his breast the word "McKinley." Should Bryan win Mr. Toller will undergo the same operation, substituting the word "Bryan."

—There will be a meeting of the Class of '96 Marietta High School at the High School this afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are asked to be present.

—Mr. Geo. B. Sunderland sold one of the Putnam and Sunderland lots to Louis Kunkle, who will build at once.

—Messrs. Sands and Outlands No. 2 well on George Clark in Ames Township came in Wednesday, at 150 feet, and showed for 10 to 15 barrels a day.

—Tomorrow will be evangelist Rolter's last Sunday at the German M. E. church, as he will begin a series of revival meetings at Seymour, Ind., next week.

Boys' Brigade at Canton.

A notable feature of the Canton trip was the Boys' Brigade, who were applauded all along the line of march and welcomed personally by Major McKinley, who gave each member a souvenir pin with a picture of his home on it. After being filled with the good things provided by the W. R. C., each was presented with a "gold bug" cake and allowed to depart for the homeward journey. They arrived home about 2:30 a. m. On arriving they formed into lines and marched to the residence of Rev. F. R. Crooks, where they gave three hearty cheers for him and three louder ones for McKinley, treating the Rev. J. G. Smith in like manner.

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a Cough remedy. J. D. Brown, Prop. St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a Cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. K. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. Free Trial Bottles at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

Marietta Challenge Accepted.

The following Marietta teams have agreed to play a game of football November 1st on the Athletic Park at Terrace Hall. This game promises to be the best of the season, the proceeds of which are to go to the Y. L. T. C. The line up will be as follows:

Jones, Capt. Left End..... Eddy Davis..... Left Tackle..... Dana Noll..... Left Guard..... J. Elston, Capt. Warren..... Center..... Rickerson Donaldson..... Right Guard..... Warner Fankhauser..... Right Tackle..... Flanagan Stone..... Right End..... Simpson Davies..... Quarter Back..... McKay McLaren..... Right Half Back..... Elston Felsley..... Full Back..... Dale Bovie..... Napoleon Bonaparte, one of the most powerful men in all history, a man continually wrapped in schemes and campaigns, in plots and counter-plots, striving intently and ambitiously for success and power—a man whose utter disregard for human life made his battles the bloodiest the world has ever seen—this man found bitterness in his triumphs because he had no heir to whom to bequeath his greatness. Josephine was divorced largely for this reason. Many women are incapable of bearing children. Many more of them are afflicted with disorders of the organs directly feminine so that bearing children would be dangerous to them, and unfit to the children. Every child deserves the heritage of health. The children cannot receive this from a sickly mother. There is no reason why they should have such a thing as "female weakness." It is as unnecessary as it is distressing. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all forms of distinctly feminine sickness. It purifies, strengthens and invigorates. It is prepared for just this one purpose and no other. It's the only medicine now before the public for woman's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician, an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

Every woman ought to send 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing a free copy of Dr. Pierce's "Medical Adviser." Write to The Sanitary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
